Incoming Study Abroad Application Form

If you can, please complete the 'Incoming Study Abroad Application Form' on your computer. You may need to download free software for reading PDF files. If you cannot complete the form online, please download, print off and complete in BLACK INK and BLOCK CAPITALS so that we can read it clearly. Please complete all sections of the application form, including the module selections and provide all supporting documents as indicated below. The form can be found at the Exchange Students section of the website.

SECTION 1 PERSONAL DETAILS

Please include your family name (surname) and forename (first names) as they are written in your passport or birth certificate. Do not use informal or nicknames on your application.

NEXT OF KIN

Whilst you are studying here (in case of an emergency) we ask you to provide details of your 'next of kin'. This person could be a spouse, civil partner, relative or legal guardian.

SECTION 2 EXCHANGE DETAILS

You need to specify, how long you want to study here. Term dates are published at: www.leedstrinity.ac.uk/term-dates. Level 4 is the first year of undergraduate study, Level 5 is the second year of undergraduate study and Level 6 is the final year of undergraduate study. Normally incoming exchange students select modules from level 4 or 5. Please note that most undergraduate students at Leeds Trinity University have to undertake a period of work placement as part of their programme therefore the academic teaching period in the second semester may be different to the first.

SECTION 3 ENGLISH LANGUAGE QUALIFICATIONS

If English is not your first language you may be required to provide evidence that you have the required level of English to study at Leeds Trinity. You may want to include copies of any formal English language tests you have completed. English proficiency level equal to B2 on Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) or IELTS 6.0 is generally required, unless stated otherwise. Evidence of this is required if you need to apply for a Student visa (for studies over 6 months).

SECTION 4 CURRENT EDUCATIONAL DETAILS

We need to know what University or College you are currently studying at. This will enable us to check the exchange agreement with your institution (if you are coming here from one of our international exchange partners or from one of our Erasmus partners). We also need to know what programme you are currently studying on to assist us with directing your application to the most appropriate member of academic staff. If you are studying here as Erasmus exchange student you will need to provide your institution's Erasmus code.

SECTION 5 PERSONAL STATEMENT

To further support your application we will need a short personal statement stating why you wish to study here as an incoming Study Abroad student. The statement should be between 300 and 500 words in length. We request that the statement is typed and not handwritten. We recommend that you complete your statement as a word document to avoid losing any text that you may not have saved. You can attach the statement to your application as a separate document.

SECTION 6: ACCOMMODATION

Please indicate if you would like to live on-campus. We cannot guarantee accommodation on-campus if you do not apply by the deadlines given (refer to the application form). You will be asked to complete an online application for accommodation after you have accepted the offer. We may be able to assist with finding accommodation outside of the campus such as with private landlord or a homestay but cannot act as an intermediary.

SECTION 7: IMMIGRATION INFORMATION

Please read the information on the application form and follow the guidance. You can also check whether you need a visa on UK government website: <https://www.gov.uk/check-uk-visa>

Guidance notes for completing the Module Selection Form

What is module selection?

When you enrol at Leeds Trinity University as a student, you will be expected to register on units of study called modules. Please complete the module selection part of the application form and return it (preferably at the same time as the Incoming Study Abroad Application Form) to admissions@leedstrinity.ac.uk.

How many credits should I take?

Modules at Leeds Trinity University are usually worth 20, 30 or 40 credits. One Leeds Trinity credit equates to 10 hours of work done by the student, including 7-8 hours of independent study. 1 LTU credit = 0,5 ECTS credits. Full-time study is 60 credits per semester. Students occasionally take 50 or 70 credits per semester if this has been agreed by the student's home university and Leeds Trinity.

When does teaching for modules take place?

Modules are available for study in either:

- Semester 1 (usually September to December)
- Semester 2 (usually January to May)
- Semesters 1 and 2 (September to May)

Please note that some modules in Semester 1 will have exams in early January. If you take one of these modules you should make arrangements to be in Leeds for the exam week – the dates are published at www.leedstrinity.ac.uk/terms-dates.

Teaching in Semester 2 usually ends by Easter holidays. Depending on the modules you have chosen you may have exams after Easter.

Which modules can I study?

If you are coming here as an exchange student under an exchange agreement the modules you study here will be dependent upon the requirements of assessment at your home institution. That is why you must seek confirmation from the relevant members of academic staff at your home institution to clarify if the modules you wish to take here can be counted towards your existing studies. It is not always possible for you to study on your preferred choice of module (due to the composition of the programme, assessment framework, structure of the timetable etc.); that is why we suggest you select up to 3 reserve choice modules. If there are any modules that you have to take as part of your study abroad placement, please indicate this on the form and we will do our best to prioritise these modules in case of timetable clashes etc.

How do I know which modules are available to study?

Please consult the Incoming Module list which can be found on the Exchange Students section of the website, and select your classes in the appropriate semester. It may be possible to take modules listed as running for the full year in either semester 1 or 2 for a reduced amount of credit. Please see the relevant column in the module list. If a full-year module is available, it will be for 50% of the full-year credit, e.g. when taking a 30-credit module on Semester 1 only, you'll get 15 credits.

Detailed module descriptions can be found at https://evision.leadstrinity.ac.uk/sipr/ipp_fehq_catalogue/

Your timetable

Your teaching timetable will be available to view via your online student account (e:Vision) when you arrive at Leeds Trinity University.

Can I change my module selections?

Yes, you can change your selections within the first two weeks of the semester when you arrive at Leeds Trinity. You need to discuss this with your home university and your personal tutor / relevant department at Leeds Trinity and complete a visiting student module amendment form if Leeds Trinity tutors and your home institution agree.
